The background is a textured, light blue-green color. Overlaid on it is a map of Seoul, South Korea, with major roads and landmarks. Several locations are highlighted with red circles and labeled in black Korean text. The labels include '홍길동' (Hong Gil Dong) at the top center, '죽전출판' (Chukchon Publishing) at the bottom center, and '그러게 좀 그럴듯하게 살자니까!' (It's better to live like that!) in the middle left. The map also features yellow and blue curved lines representing hills or rivers.
